For those of you who have travelled to Italy and fallen in love, Sicily is even more than that. For those who have tasted some of Italy's finest produce, Sicily will always call you. For those who have been lost in history, architecture and tradition, Sicily will lift you up in its arms and carry you further.

- Travel through the archaeological site of Selinunte, Mazara del Vallo, Marsarla, Mozia, and the sea side town of Scaccia sampling fine wines, dining in restaurants, and cantinas that will take you back in time.
- Enjoy a selection of cooking classes filled with traditional Sicilian fare using local seasonal produce collected that morning from the vibrant humming Sicilian markets, experience wine and olive oil tasting and being mesmerised by locals cooking their traditional street foods.
- Be astounded by the monuments such as la Cattedrale di Monreale, la Cappella Palatina, and the must see le Catacombe dei Cappuccini, Castello della Zisa, and the Giardini della Pallazzina Cinese as we travel through the provinces of Trapani and Palermo.
- Visit medieval towns such as Erice, enjoy the stunning views of Cefalù, San Vito Lo Capo and drive through the Madonie Mountains, Castelbuono, and Santo Stefano di Camastra
- Luxuriate in old world, charming hotels and an exquisite estate in the mountains with the alluring colours of nature setting the stage and the beautiful aromas of the mountain lavender, rosemary, and thyme.

The Shalai Tour of Eastern Sicily and the Aeolian Islands

25 August - 9 September 2013, 16 Days/15 nights

$6495.00 per person twin share

(single supplement $1220.00)

There are tours that open your eyes – as well as your mind, heart and soul – to experiencing what the world has to offer, and this tour of Eastern Sicily is one of them.

- Taste the true flavours of Sicily in hands on cooking classes, including the age-old art of hand-rolled pasta making, sausage and salami making, cheese making, and a lesson in traditional dolce, all produced by artisans following family recipes kept alive with passion through the last century and before.
- Journey to the rich lands surrounding the famous Mount Etna and towns of Acireale, Randazzo and Bronte, enjoying degustations of local wines, experiencing wine festival at the time of the fall grape harvest, and sampling local regional products.
- Discover some of the most beautiful historical provinces of Syracuse, Ragusa, Catania, Messina and Agrigento including visits to the towns of chocolate-loving Modica, Noto, and the island of Ortigia.
- Release yourself and relax in the “seven pearls of the Mediterranean” that are The Aeolian Islands and marvel at spectacular views, hypnotic waters and enchanted sunsets.
- Discover an old world and its traditions, staying in historic B&Bs’ and stately hotels, immersing yourself in the rich culture, shopping, history, art, theatre and sculpture of this side of Sicily.
