SWEET TREAT

HERE'S some delectable news for the sweet tooth – dessert maestros Ian Burch and Darren Purchase will open their new South Yarra "sweet studio" on April 14. Edible bubbles, a chocolate flower garden and strawberry shortcakes (pictured) are just a few of the creations to fill the studio (647 Chapel St). Or try this on for size – macadamia pastry layered with caramelised banana cream, crunchy macadamia meringue, passionfruit jelly, caramelised white chocolate and vanilla mousse encased in a chocolate velvet spray. GARDEN FOOD

GET a lesson in fresh, simple and seasonal cooking from TV chef Dominique Rizzo at the Melbourne International Flower and Garden Show this week. Every hour from 11am to 4pm, Dominique will join gardening guru Meredith Kirton (both pictured) to share tips on growing and cooking food in the cooler months. Find them at the Lindemans Open Garden. HOT STUFF

GIPPSLAND chilli expert Geoff Love has found a novel use for spicy little rocoto chillies (below). He stuffs the ancient Peruvian peppers with shredded chicken and cream cheese, wraps them in prosciutto and bakes them. Find them ($5 for 200g) today at the Mount Eliza Farmers' Market.
